

BARANGAY HISTORY

Accordingly, Barangay Kinalanguyan is just like a forest, it is grown with tall trees of different varieties, plants and wild grasses. The place has no name yet. "Kinalanguyan" however, is a tagalog term for a place swimming.

This is how the place got its name

The northern part of Kinalanguyan is a deep creek. People from the northern area came to the place by swimming across the creek. The only way to cross the creek is through swimming it is very deep. That's why the people called the place Kinalanguyan (tagalog for the place for swimming).

Kinalanguyan is just a sitio of barangay Sibul and recognized only as an independent barangay in 1952. The first "Tinyente del Baryo" of Kinalanguyan is Maximo Gamboa, 1953 – 1955, followed by Marcos delos Ama, 1955 – 1957. Ireneo Patio 1957 – 1959, Leoncio Rayo 1959 – 1981 and Rolando delos Ama in 1981.
