

BARANGAY HISTORY

A kilometer eastward of Talavera is Barangay Sampaloc. This is only a part of the then Sitio Balasiwak, wherein the people dwells even before the Spanish era. The name Balasiwak was then changed to Sampaloc. The name was derived from a native fruit Sampalok (Tamarind), which is grown everywhere in the place, which is owned by Gregorio Maliwat.

The first “Tinyente del Baryo” of Sampaloc when it became a barrio is Ignacio Maliwat.

The patron saint of Barangay Sampaloc is Nuestra Señora dela Paz, and the feast day is during the 4th day of the month of February.
