

BARANGAY HISTORY

Barangay Minabuyoc is just like a forest where tall trees and wild grasses grew. Nobody dwells in the place, since it is not yet ready to live at. However, it is one of the Filipino value to seek for their fate everywhere, like a certain couple Lorenzo and Siana Velasquez, went to the place, cleared it until such time that the place is ready for dwelling and some other part can be used for their agricultural and planting purposes and so be it. Until one day Lorenzo noticed so many bees around the place, but one thing is noticeable, these bees lived in the land. She thought that the place is a bee mine (Mina ng Bubuyog), until peoples continue to dwell with the couple. Children usually called the place Minabuyoc (childs term for Mina ng Bubuyog). That is why when the place was recognized as barangay higher authorities called the place Minabuyoc.

The patron saint of Minabuyoc is Saint Joseph and the feast day is every 19th of March.
